DEATH OF MRS. E. E. RICHARDS.

Worthy Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star Succumbs.

Scarcely had the funeral obsequies over the remains of Mrs. W. S. Wise been closed when the news spread over the town of the death of Mrs. E. E. Richards, who for days, it had been known, was hanging as by a thread to the life that had been so sweet to her and precious to others. Mrs. Richards died at a little before 4 o'clock p. m. Wednesday June 4. She had been ill about two weeks, an illness which from the first threatened her life. With a wonderful courage and strength of constitution she battled with the relentless disease. A week ago it was thought she was out of danger. A few days later it was only a question of minutes when she would breathe her last. Monday and Tuesday the rumor was abroad that she had died. But Wednesday morning the numerous friends of the family were rejoiced with the report that a marked change for the better had come. But Wednesday at one o'clock, the marvellous strength gave way, the patient became unconscious and passed away three hours later, leaving a home and hearts desolate.

Mrs. Richards was a woman whose place in the hearts of all classes of the people of Hilo will be hard if not impossible to fill by any other. She was a model wife a perfect mother and a friend alike to neighbor and stranger. She was loved by everyone who came within the charm of her presence, there to feel the noble generosity of spirit that dominated her nature. The bereaved hearts of her relatives count all who have known the deceased as sharers in their grief.

The impressive funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Richards' home in Puteo under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star in which the deceased held the office of Worthy Matron at the time of her death. The Hebrew burial service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Cruzan. The choir, consisting of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Bartels, Misses Severance, Hapai, Hansen, and Messrs. Prouty and Beers sang the hymns, "It is well with my Soul," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The floral offerings were many, consisting of leis, wreaths and symbols of the order, which had the services in charge. The flowers were gracefully heaped about the casket where it stood by the portals of the home in which the deceased had spent her happiest days.

The casket was then borne to the Hilo cemetery where the Eastern Star again performed their last rites over the grave of a lamented sister. The pall bearers were Messrs. C. C. Kennedy, E. N. Holmes, J. T. Moir, Captain Johnson, T. M. Rowland and G. N. Day. The honorary pall bearers were: Messrs. I. E. Ray, H. Shaw, J. U. Smith, F. A. Medcalf, Keith Mackie and Alswarick. Mrs. Lillian Schoen was born in June, 1863, in San Jose, California. She was a graduate of the State Normal School in that city. After graduation, she taught in California for a time and in 1890 came to the Hawaiian Islands to teach at Wailuku. In October, 1892, she was married in Hilo to E. E. Richards, manager of the Hawaiian Telephone and Telegraph Co. The deceased is survived by her husband and four children, parents, Mrs. Lewis Schoen and three brothers, all of this city and a sister in Kau.

DEATH OF MRS. WISE.

An Invalid for Many Months She at Last Succumbs.

After an illness full of pain extending over a period of more than a year, death came to Mrs. W. S. Wise, an angel of mercy last Tuesday night. For the past several months, Mrs. Wise had been bedfast and the disease, which had so relentlessly pursued her made her last days, days of anguish in spite of every attention and relief that the best medical skill and the devotion of a faithful husband could bestow. Several weeks before her passing away, it was known that death was inevitable and all was then done, possible to make her last days, painless and comfortable. She was ready and willing to embrace the peace of eternal sleep.

The funeral was held from the First Foreign Church Wednesday afternoon. At the church the funeral ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Mr. Cruzan, the house being crowded with friends of the deceased and sympathizers with the surviving husband and children. The pall bearers were Messrs. H. L. Ross, L. Turner, J. E. Ray, C. H. Bowman, R. N. Day and Captain Fitzgerald. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Lewis sang appropriate and beautiful hymns. The casket was covered with a wealth of floral offerings, the gifts of many friends and especially of the Order of the Eastern Star of which the deceased was a faithful member.

At the grave, the service was entirely in the hands of the Order of the Eastern Star which was conducted impressively. The maiden name of Mrs. Wise was Emma Frances Dykes. She was born in Noble County, Indiana, March 3 1853. On May 11, 1880 she was joined in marriage to W. S. Wise, who with three children, a daughter and two sons, survives her. The deceased was an active member of the First Foreign church in this city.

CELEBRATION PLANS.

Goddess of Liberty Will be Chosen by Ballot.

The Finance Committee on a Fourth of July celebration held a meeting Monday night and advanced the good cause. Separate subscription lists were agreed upon for the sporting events at the Race track and the business men's parade up town.

The feature of the parade which will interest the feminine patriots of Hilo will be the Goddess of Liberty and the method of her selection which has been decided upon by the Committee. She will be chosen by ballot. A ballot will cost five cents and may be purchased at the Owl Drug store and cast in a ballot box to be provided at the Owl Drug store. The voting has already begun. Each day the ballots will be counted and the results announced on the Owl Drug store Bulletin Board.

It is expected that at the close of the campaign, which ends June 28, the race will have narrowed down to three or four of the most popular or beautiful young ladies in the city or district or Island of Hawaii.

The literary exercises of the day will be held in a pavilion to be erected on the Hilo Hotel lawn.

The sports at Hoolulu Park will consist of horse racing and various athletic events.

COMMISSION ARRIVES.

Hilo's New Postmaster Will Arrive Here June 25.

William I. Madeira received his commission as Postmaster at Hilo by the Ventura mail at Honolulu. The commission has the signature of Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Madeira will come to Hilo June 25, to take charge of the post office July 1. He does not come at once because he could not arrive here in time to take charge June 1, and it is inadvisable to make a change, when not absolutely necessary, in the middle of a month, and especially so near the end of the fiscal year.

The post office department has allowed a number of improvements for the Hilo post office, including an entire new set of boxes which have arrived, besides some additional furniture, and other appliances that will admit of considerable improvements in the post office.

William I. Madeira was born in Santa Cruz, California, June 29, 1874. His father, Dan Madeira came from Pe ria to California in 1852 across the plains. His family was originally Spanish coming to Florida in the sixteenth century. From there the family went to Virginia, and in the first half of the 19th century freed their slaves and moved to Illinois. His mother was of New England stock.

Mr. Madeira began life in the telegraph business, and for five years was a telegraph operator. He went to Honolulu in November, 1898, and entered the postal service a month later. He was made assistant postmaster June 14, 1900. His nomination as postmaster here came to him unsolicited. He married November 14, 1901, in Madison, Wisconsin, Miss Jessie Woodard, daughter of State Senator Lester Woodard of that state. Mrs. Madeira is a graduate of Lawrence University, Appleton, Wisconsin, and is a woman of many accomplishments.

Hawaiian Fruit Fair.

The first competitive exhibition of fruits, vegetables and plants to be given under the direction of the commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry, will be held in Honolulu Monday and Tuesday, July 28 and 29.

All articles exhibited must be ready for examination by the judges at 8:30 o'clock a. m., on Monday, July 28th. The exhibition will be open to the public at 10:30 o'clock a. m., on July 28th.

All plants, flowers, fruits and vegetables offered for prizes must be Hawaiian grown and placed on the tables clean, and correctly labelled.

After the articles are arranged they will be under the exclusive charge of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry and cannot be moved until the exhibition is closed.

No plants, flowers, fruits or vegetables will be entitled to a prize unless they possess points of superiority, and no award will be made to unworthy objects, though they may be the only ones of their kind on exhibition.

The following gentlemen will officiate as judges: L. Cleghorn, Jared G. Smith, Esq., G. P. Wilder, Esq. Any further information required, address the Commissioner, P. O. Box 532, Honolulu. Liberal premiums will be awarded.

Gold Watch for Brown.

Captain Ben Brown, who resigned his position on the police force last week was treated to a pleasant surprise at the convening of Police court Monday morning. The members of the police force had all contributed to a fund and purchased a fine gold watch for the retiring captain.

Sheriff Andrews made the presentation speech, congratulating Captain Brown on the high regard in which he was held by his former working associates and expressing regret that the Department had lost such valuable services as Captain Brown was capable of giving.

The Captain was deeply impressed with what had been done and with some difficulty framed his short speech in reply. The watch presented was one of the finest that could be bought.

June Engagements

The engagement of Miss Eliza Grubb of this city to Judge G. F. Little of the Fourth Circuit Court is announced. The date of the wedding has not been settled.

The engagement of G. H. Bergstrom late of Honolulu and Miss Childs formerly of Hilo, now at Honokaa, is announced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Canario announce the engagement of their daughter Melinda Agnes to Mr. William J. Stone.

The Misses Peck gave a dinner and party at their home in Puteo last Tuesday evening in honor of C. A. Stobie and Mrs. E. H. Reid. One of the pleasant features of the evening was the announcement of the engagement of Mr. Stobie and Mrs. Reid.

Fences are being built on each side of the Hamakua road between Paukaa and Papakou at the dangerous place where a four mule team recently went over an embankment.

PECK AT WASHINGTON.

Is Given a Hearing Before the Senate Committee.

Word has been received from Washington that Philip Peck is doing good work in behalf of the movement to secure a breakwater for Hilo harbor. On May 26, Mr. Peck appeared before the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico and was given a lengthy hearing. He was congratulated by the Senators on the showing he made. Senator Foraker, who is chairman of the committee, regretted that Mr. Peck had not appeared on the scene two or three months earlier in the session in which case it would have been an easier matter to secure an appropriation for the proposed breakwater. As it is now, over $700,000,000 have already been appropriated and it will be difficult at this late date to increase this by the appearance of tardy but worthy causes.

Mr. Peck writes home that he is spending his time between New York and Washington. He says that even though nothing is done at this session, he is sure the labor has not been lost and expects to see results at the next Congress. He finds that the senators take a lively interest in what he has to say regarding Hilo, even though they are rushed with many matters which press them at the close of the session. Mr. Peck will not start home until he sees what Congress will or will not do for Hilo. Mrs. Peck is in New York and writes that she is eager to start home.

A Job in Sight.

An opportunity will be given local candidates for the position of engineer in the Marine Hospital Service to be examined in Hilo. A vacancy occurs in the position of engineer of the Marine Hospital launch "Oahu" at Quarantine Station, Honolulu, at a salary of $125 per month. From the list of eligibles an appointment to this position will be made. No educational test is required, the applicants qualifications depending upon statements as to age, character as a workman, experience and physical ability furnished in connection with the application. Candidates should apply immediately to the Custom House at Hilo or Honolulu for blank forms and instructions.

Gramberg from Waimea.

A Gramberg, one of the best farmers of Waimea was in the city this week attending court as a witness. He has a 200 acre farm at an elevation of 2400 feet. He says his district is capable of raising any crop in the world. The great drawback in the past two years has been the ravages of the cut worms. Mr. Gramberg has really been conducting an experiment station of his own and with the energetic assistance of the Agricultural Department and the Agricultural Commissioner at Honolulu. But for the raids of the cut worms Mr. Gramberg would have had splendid results from all kinds of fruit, vegetables and grasses.

Wants Road Repaired.

Peter Lee of 12 mile was in the city yesterday. To a TRIBUNE Reporter he said: "This morning the heavy cloud of volcanic smoke, so familiar to old timers, hides from view the top of Mauna Loa and its volume indicates that the volcano is out on one of her old time stampedes. What bothers me most, though," said Mr. Lee, "is that the road from 23 to 27 miles is in such a terrible condition. The Road Board by putting their entire gang of men at work at once, could quickly make the road passable. The road would be all right for travel with merely a top-dressing, which could be finished in the worst places within three weeks."

Escaping Prisoners.

Sheriff Andrews's garbage farm has something about it that seems to impel prisoners to flee from its malaromatic precincts. Last week two Porto Rican prisoners eluded the vigilance of their luna and got away into the woods. One of them, Pablo, was caught at Olua last Saturday. Lopez, his comrade is still at large.

Last Wednesday evening Koko, a native, who has been carrying a ball and chain made his escape from the same place. He broke the chain in some manner and made good his flight. At the time of going to press, Koko had not been captured.

Benefit Concert.

There will be a Sunday School benefit concert at the Hail church Wednesday evening June 11, doors open at 7:30, concert beginning at 8 o'clock. The Hilo Boarding School quartette; the Kamehameha Glee Club and musicians from Company D will all appear. Besides these choruses there will be solo by a number of the best known local singers.

Whooping Cough.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious case of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. STRICKFADEN, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash., U. S. A. For sale by the Hilo Drug Co.

No Elk Theatricals.

Owing to too short time to make preparations and the further fact that the Chinese theater could not be secured, the theatrical committee of the Elks has decided not to put on a play in Hilo for the Fourth of July. The Chinese theater has been leased for four months to a Japanese troupe, leaving the Elks without a suitable auditorium.
